

THE PALMER COLLECTION AT SAINT-GAUDENS

1. Adams House: Plainfield

2. Louis St.Gaudens House: old Shaker Meeting House moved from Enfield; burned; present site of Dryfhout home, 13 Witten Road

3. Fuller House: Plainfield

4. Walker House: White, 193 Platt Road

5. Homer Saint-Gaudens House/ Barberry House: Cole, 187 Saint-Gaudens Road

6. Beaman House, Blow-Me-Down Farm; burned: SGNHS, Route 12A

7. Hart House: Plainfield

8. Ruins at Harlakenden

9. Mitchell House: Plainfield

10. Rublee House, "Crossways"; Platt Road
(originally built for the Hydes, followed by Rublee, Blumberg/Arougo; information supplied by Charles Platt)

11. Percy MacKaye: Ober, Dodge Road
Marion Ober is the grand-daughter of Percy MacKaye

12. Edward Bryant: Littell Road

13. Kenyon Cox, also know as “Henry Arnold Place: Witty, Squag City

14. Rose Standish Nichols, Mastlands: Route 12A

15. Everett and Florence Shinn: Daniels Road, Plainfield

16. Herbert Croly: Saint-Gaudens Road

17. Grace Lawrence Taylor, "Hilltop": Plainfield

18. Charles Platt: Platt, 165 Platt Road

19. Philip Littell: Littell Road

20. Stephen Parrish: Gordon, 84 Lang Road

21. Norman Hapgood, "High Court"; Blumberg, 29 High Court Drive
(built for Annie Lazarus; then came Hapgood, Goodyear/Ames, Farley, Blumberg/Araujo; information supplied by Charles Platt)

22. Maxfield Parrish: Plainfield

23. Louis and Ellen Shipman: Plainfield

24. Thomas and Maria Dewing, "Doveridge", also Judge Learned Hand:
Platt Road

25. Frances Grimes: Saint-Gaudens Road

(She rented here; it was not her home. It was the Westcroft Farm, then Arthur Quimby followed by Orville Fitch and the Zoerheides; information supplied by Charles Platt)

26. George De Forest Brush: rented houses in Cornish and Plainfield

